A document in the Comintern Archive, RGASPI, f. 515, op. 1, d. 31, ll. 20-21.

INTRODUCTION: The minutes of the first part of the meeting were kept by Executive Secretary Damon [C.E. Ruthenberg], and have not yet been turned over to the CEC. The following is just a brief statement of the outstanding facts made from memory.

The meeting was called to order in the evening, April 15 [1920].

Present: Damon [Ruthenberg], Bunte [Charles Dirba], Braun [Latvian Federationist], Sasha [Rose Pastor Stokes], Andrew [Nicholas Hourwich], Raphael [Alexander Bittelman], Bernstein [Max Cohen], Myers [Walter Karath], Alden [=???], Langley [Jay Lovestone], Ries [John Ballam], and Kasbeck [Alex Georgian] — CEC; Smith [Marion Sproule], Henry [George Ashkenuzi], Wood [Croatian Federationist], Davey [=???], and Fisher [Leonid Belsky] — District Organizers; Palmer [William Reynolds, Estonian Federation], Reivert [Fritz Friedman, German Federation], Cornell [=???], Baltic [Latvian Federationist], Burba [Lithuanian Federationist], Field [Russian Federationist], and [George] Legun [Ukrainian Federation] — Federations.†

As the first order of business, the minutes of the previous meeting of the CEC were extensively corrected and adopted. A written protest against the bias with which they had been written was made by 7 members of the CEC.

Then a representative of the Executive Council and the Executive Secretary [Ruthenberg] gave reports to the crisis threatening the party with split.

“Minority” group submitted a statement presenting certain demands as an ultimatum, upon which it was decided to let each side hold conferences to try to settle the controversy by negotiations.

These negotiations lasted until Sunday afternoon, April 18 [1920], when the two sides came to a deadlock: “Minority” [Ruthenberg group] insisting upon abrogating the authority of the CEC as to removing District Organizers, and giving it only limited space in The Communist, while the “Majority” [Hourwich group] was willing to relinquish factional control of the Executive Council, but not to impair the authority of the central bodies, and demanded equal rights on The Communist.

Minutes of Meeting Beginning Sunday Afternoon, April 18 [1920].

Then Comrade Bunte [Dirba], who with Braun [=???] and Alden [=???] had not joined either side up till then (in order to act as conciliators), proposed that the CEC meeting should now be resumed to deal with situation.

At this point Comrade Damon [Ruthenberg], the Executive Secretary, refused to take part in the meeting of the CEC and refused to recognize the authority of the CEC.

Then Acting Secretary Bunte [Dirba] called the meeting to order and asked all those who recognized the CEC and wanted to take part in its meeting to
